

Insolvency Service publishes new Individual Voluntary Arrangement protocol to help protect people in debt

New protocol is the result of the agency working with organisations across the sector to improve support for people considering an IVA.