

Inspections target smashed with 10,000 health checks on water network

Environment Agency completes record number of water company inspections driving improved performance across the sector