

Interim Chief Construction Adviser appointed

The role will provide expert, independent advice to ministers and government on building safety and regulatory reform.