

Intimidation in Public Life: letters from Twitter

[unable to retrieve full-text content]The Committee on Standards in Public Life has received correspondence from Twitter regarding progress made against the Committee's recommendations, following its review on intimidation in public life.