

Investigation launched into anti-poverty charity after failure to comply with official orders

The Charity Commission has opened a statutory inquiry into Destiny Community Services to investigate the charity's failure to file statutory financial reports.