

Join the British Hallmarking Council

Join the British Hallmarking Council for a chance to influence the future of an ancient and fascinating industry that employs 60,000 people across the UK and faces new challenges as Brexit progresses.

The British Hallmarking Council has vacancies for 2 new Council members.

The details of the vacancy, person specification and how to apply are on the public appointments website.