

Joint targeted area inspections to focus on child sexual abuse in the family environment

Starting in the autumn of 2025, inspections will consider local areas' multi-agency responses to child sexual abuse in the family environment.