

Kowloon West Cluster makes public appeal to help locate missing patient

The following is issued on behalf of the Hospital Authority:

The spokesman for Kowloon West Cluster (KWC) made the following appeal today (June 12) regarding a patient who left the hospital without prior notification:

A 28-year-old male patient of Kwai Chung Hospital, accompanied by hospital staff, attended the Accident and Emergency Department of Princess Margaret Hospital (PMH) due to injury last night (June 11). The patient left PMH at around 9.45pm.

Security guards were mobilised to search within the hospital compound and the vicinity area but in vain. KWC is very concerned about the incident and has reported to the Police.

The patient was about 1.8 meters tall with a strong body build, short hair and a beard. He wore a green long-sleeved collared top, black and white plaid trousers and slippers.

The hospital appeals to the public to contact Cheung Sha Wan Police Station at 3661 1644 or call 999 if they know the whereabouts of the patient.
