

Lancashire recycling company sentenced for illegal waste exports

The Environment Agency has successfully prosecuted a recycling company for attempting to illegally export plastics contaminated with household waste.