

Landmark agreements strengthen UK-Poland defence relations

The UK will enhance Poland's military capability and strengthen the defence relationship between the two countries, following the signing of two major defence equipment agreements.