

Landmark government partnership signed with North Macedonia

The new Government Partnership will drive economic growth across both countries through increased collaboration on infrastructure projects.