

Landmark NHS league tables launched to drive up standards

Patients will get better care and value from record investment in the NHS thanks to a pioneering new system of league tables being rolled out across England.