

Landscape Orbs

As part of welters® commitment to achieving zero waste working practices, all by-product materials produced in cast stone manufacturing is now being utilised as a structural landscape commodity.

Example visual of Landscape Orbs used for bank stabilisation

The Landscape Orbs are created using irregular spheroid formations of cast stone, which are cured into solid forms. These are perfect for uses such as bank stabilisation, erosion protection or as naturalised stone features in their own right.

The post Landscape Orbs appeared first on Latest News.