Emerging local violinist Nina Wong will give a recital in June as part of the "Hong Kong Artists" Series presented by the Leisure and Cultural Services Department (LCSD). The recital will feature a repertoire spanning different eras with diverse musical styles, showcasing Wong's exceptional technique and versatile musicianship.

Wong will open the recital with Bach's "Chaconne" (from "Violin Partita No.2 in D minor, BWV 1004") in solo. She will then be joined by young pianist Shelley Ng to perform two works by Norwegian composers, namely "Preluminado for Violin and Piano" by contemporary composer Terje Bjørklund and "Violin Sonata No.2, Op.13" by renowned Romantic era composer Edvard Grieg. Afterwards, Wong will perform three pieces (Nos. 3, 4 and 6) from "Tango Etudes for Solo Violin" by Piazzolla, a celebrated Argentine composer in the 20th century. She, in collaboration with Ng, will top off the performance with an interpretation of "Violin Sonata in E-flat, Op.18" by Strauss, bringing the recital to a magnificent conclusion.
