Less paper, better data, quicker transfer of information – how a digital tribunals system is improving the appeals process

The Social Security and Child Support (SSCS) tribunal handles appeals when people disagree with decisions about their benefits or child support, made by the Department for Work and Pensions (DWP) or HM Revenue and Customs (H…