

Let me remind Mrs May of the Conservative Manifesto in 2017 – I want her to implement it

On the EU the Manifesto made a lot of sense. It said "As we leave the EU we will no longer be members of the single market or customs union

"We believe it is necessary to agree the terms of our future partnership alongside our withdrawal, reaching agreement on both within the 2 years allowed by Article 50 of the Treaty of European Union.

"We will not bring the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights into UK law.

"We continue to believe that No deal is better than a bad deal for the UK."

It also confirmed that we will take back "control of our laws" and "We will control immigration". "We will pursue free trade with European markets, and secure new free trade agreements with other countries"

It is difficult to see how an MP who supported this Manifesto can support the current Withdrawal Agreement.

All MPs should remember the words of the government leaflet to all households before the referendum:

"This is your decision. We will implement what you decide"
