

Local air quality management

Local air quality management (LAQM) is the framework local authorities must follow to protect against air pollution in their area.