

Local Plan examinations: letter to the Chief Executive of the Planning Inspectorate (October 2025)

This letter lays out the government's expectations on the exercise of flexibility in the examination of local plans submitted within the current plan-making system.