

Major banks give helping hand to people experiencing homelessness as new Financial Inclusion Strategy launches

Thousands of people at risk of experiencing homelessness will now be able to open bank accounts with five major UK banks through a new pilot with Shelter, to help them to get paid work.