

Man arrested and charged by Police National Security Department

The National Security Department of the Hong Kong Police Force arrested a 28-year-old man in Stanley today (June 6) for suspected "conspiracy to collusion with a foreign country or with external elements to endanger national security", contravening Article 29(2) and (4) of the National Security Law, and for suspected "dealing with property known or believed to represent proceeds of indictable offence", contravening Section 25 of the Organized and Serious Crimes Ordinance (Cap. 455).

The man was charged with one count of "conspiracy to collusion with a foreign country or with external elements to endanger national security". The case will be mentioned at the West Kowloon Magistrates' Courts this afternoon.
