

Man who assaulted and killed a dog walker has sentence increased

A man who sexually assaulted and murdered a woman walking her dog in a random attack has had his sentence increased after the Solicitor General intervened.