

Mapping opportunity: new Connectivity Tool launches to place sustainable transport at the heart of jobs, schools and vital services

The tool scores places in England and Wales on how well connected they are to health services, education, shopping, leisure and workplaces.