

Master scholarships to be available under CSC & Chevening SIDS

This was made possible by the UK government's commitment to providing opportunities to empower young people from Small Island Developing States with access to education and skills.