

Mental health support and peer support networks to get people back into work as local areas get £80 million funding boost

Across the country, thousands more people will be helped back towards employment through support ranging from peer-to-peer support groups to mental health support thanks to an £80 million funding package announced today (Thu...