

MHRA and NICE receive £2 million from Wellcome to improve safety and effectiveness of digital mental health technologies

Additional funding will allow the MHRA and NICE to continue developing clear, proportionate guidance for digital mental health technologies, supporting safer, more effective tools for people across the UK.