

MHRA landmark report reveals public views on AI in healthcare

The MHRA is publishing the results of an extensive public consultation which will inform the recommendations of the AI Commission and future regulations.