AS-SAWIYAH, Palestinian Territories: Moussa is eight years old and really likes marbles. But for the past month, this Palestinian boy, living in the occupied West Bank, has a new game: "Pretend daddy isn't dead." He calls his dad, imagines what he did with his day, and acts like he's suddenly going to run into him. But his father, Bilal Saleh, was killed on October 28. The 40-year-old was shot in the chest while picking olives with his family near his home in the village of As-Sawiyah.

Jordan's King Abdullah says world should condemn any attempt to forcibly expel Palestinians

AMMAN: Jordan's King Abdullah said on Tuesday the world should condemn any attempt by Israel to create conditions that would forcibly displace Palestinians within the war-devastated Gaza Strip or outside its borders. In remarks carried by state media after a meeting with the Cypriot president in Amman, the monarch again called for an immediate cease-fire and warned that Israel's relentless bombing campaign was leading to a "dangerous deterioration" in the situation.

Red Cross chief arrives in Gaza, says suffering 'intolerable'

GENEVA: The Red Cross president arrived in war-torn Gaza on Monday, calling for the protection of civilians in the Palestinian territory, where she warned that human suffering was "intolerable."

The International Committee of the Red Cross said ICRC President Mirjana Spoljaric's travel to the region would happen in several stages with "a visit to Israel expected over the coming weeks."

"I have arrived in Gaza, where people's suffering is intolerable," Spoljaric said on X, formerly Twitter.

Egyptian Space Agency announces successful launch of MisrSat 2 satellite from China

CAIRO: The Egyptian Space Agency has reported that the launch of the MisrSat 2 satellite from China was successful.

The agency said: "This (the launch) is in light of the strategic partnership between the governments of Egypt and China and the fruitful and constructive cooperation between the two friendly countries."

A team of Egyptian engineers collaborated with Chinese experts in the satellite's design and manufacture.

It was assembled and tested at the EGSA's Satellite Assembly, Integration, and Testing Center.

Netanyahu graft trial resumes in Israel in midst of Gaza war

JERUSALEM: Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's corruption trial resumed on Monday, despite the country's continuing war against Hamas in the Gaza Strip.

The trial was suspended after the Palestinian militant group's Oct. 7 attack on southern Israel in which 1,200 people were killed and 240 more kidnapped according to Israeli officials.

Netanyahu, leader of Israel's right-wing Likud party, is accused of bribery, fraud and breach of trust, allegations he denies.
