TUNIS: Five migrants from sub-Saharan Africa drowned and another 28 were missing Wednesday after their boat capsized off Tunisia, a rights group said. "Five migrants' bodies were recovered and five other migrants were rescued, but 28 are still missing," said Romdhane Ben Amor of the Tunisian Forum for social and economic rights (FTDES). He said it had sunk "because it was overloaded" with 38 people, mostly from the Ivory Coast.

Probable civilian deaths during British air strikes in Iraq throw doubt on 'perfect' war claims

Wed, 2023-03-22 03:58

LONDON: Civilian deaths as a result of air strikes on Daesh targets in Iraq have been linked to British forces, according to a Guardian investigation released on Tuesday.

Forces in the US-led coalition fighting against Daesh in Iraq have admitted the killings of hundreds of civilians in Iraq in the period after 2014, but Britain's government and military have long claimed that a "perfect" war was fought, in which no non-combatants or ordinary Iraqis were killed.
