

Israeli reservist colonel dismissed over judicial reform protest

Thu, 2023-03-09 23:34

JERUSALEM: The Israeli air force said on Thursday that it had dismissed a reservist officer in the military for trying to orchestrate group walkouts from training flights as part of a spreading protest at judicial reforms planned by the government.

In its first disciplinary measure during the political crisis roiling Israel, the military said in a statement that the colonel, whose name has not been published, "behaved ... in a manner unbecoming of his officer's rank and station."

Main category:

Middle-East

Kuwait to empower women as 'equal partners,' says minister

Thu, 2023-03-09 23:05

NEW YORK: Kuwait wants to empower its female population as “equal partners” to help boost the country’s drive for a sustainable future, its minister for social and women’s affairs has said.

Mai Al-Baghli told the UN’s Commission on the Status of Women in New York that her country wanted women to achieve progress at various levels, including technological innovation.

Al-Baghli said that the session came at a crucial time, with only seven years ahead of the deadline for attaining objectives of global sustainable development, set at 2030.

Main category:

Middle-East

Police fire pepper spray after Women’s Day protest in Istanbul

ID:

1678307099363820800

Wed, 2023-03-08 23:29

ISTANBUL: Turkish riot police fired pepper spray to disperse a group of protesters pushing back against a line of police on Wednesday as a rally to mark International Women’s Day was winding down in central Istanbul.

Women whistled and chanted “We do not keep quiet, we are not scared, we do

A large crowd of people at night, many holding up blue lights, with a banner reading "Yasaklız, yastaklız, yastaklız kapitalist uykuda" and "Yasaklız, yastaklız, yastaklız kapitalist uykuda". The banner also includes the word "Yasaklız" in large letters. In the foreground, there are signs with text in Turkish, including "Orhan Kemal Müzesi", "Sıraşelvililer", and "Taksim". The scene is illuminated by streetlights and the blue lights held by the crowd.

Middle-East

Wed, 2023-03-08 22:46

This was one of the messages from participants in a panel discussion hosted by the Middle East Institute in Washington on Wednesday titled "Climate Injustice? How poorer nations are shouldering the burden of climate change."

Main category:

Middle-East

UN 'alarmed' at West Bank violence day after Israeli raid

Wed, 2023-03-08 22:35

JERUSALEM: The UN Middle East peace envoy urged Israel and the Palestinians on Wednesday to calm surging violence in the occupied West Bank, a day after the latest Israeli raid killed six people.

"We are in the midst of a cycle of violence that must be stopped immediately," Tor Wennesland said in a statement.

"The Security Council has spoken with one voice, calling on the parties to observe calm and restraint, and to refrain from provocative actions, incitement and inflammatory rhetoric."

Main category:
Middle-East