

Gaza patients at grave risk as Israel bans diagnostic medical equipment

Mon, 2023-01-09 22:50

GAZA CITY: The Palestinian Ministry of Health has accused Israel of banning necessary medical equipment from entering Gaza Strip hospitals for more than a year.

The Hamas-run ministry in Gaza said the lives of patients in Gaza are at grave risk because Israel is not allowing the entry of medical equipment.

The ministry said that Israel's ban on medical diagnostic devices was a violation of Palestinians' right to treatment, which is guaranteed by international humanitarian law.

Main category:

Middle-East

Egypt police foil attempt to steal pharaonic era statue in Aswan

Mon, 2023-01-09 22:43

CAIRO: Security services from Egypt's Interior Ministry arrested three people for illegally excavating antiquities in Aswan Governorate, southern Egypt.

The Tourism and Antiquities Police Department in Aswan acted on information that people were digging inside the archaeological area in the southern quarry area – El-Shallal “waterfall” – in Aswan with the aim of seizing a granite statue dating back to the pharaonic era.

Authorities detained three people who were discovered digging in the area.

Main category:

Middle-East

Recording of the week: ‘Wayn tkhalliñi’ by Iraq’s Rashīd al-Qundarjī

This week’s post comes from Hazem Jamjoum, Audio Curator for the British Library Qatar Foundation Partnership Programme. Rashīd al-Qundarjī (1886-1945) was one of the early recording artists of Iraq’s Maqam repertoire. In musical contexts, the Arabic word maqam usually denotes melodic and rhythmic modes. In Iraq, however, the word is...

Why Lebanon, Iraq and Jordan rank among the 'world's angriest countries'

Sun, 2023-01-08 22:17

JEDDAH: Many breathed a sigh of relief when 2022 drew to a close, marking the conclusion of 12 months of post-pandemic fatigue, geopolitical tension and global economic instability, to name but a few of the past year's challenges.

One result of the year's volatility and upsets is the pervading sense of anger coursing through societies, fed up with the litany of back-to-back crises – solutions for which appear to evade governments and global institutions.

ARAB WORLD'S ANGRIEST COUNTRIES

Three Arab nations had the highest share of respondents that experienced anger on the day previous to the survey between 2021-2022

Source: Gallup Global Emotions Report / Statista

ARAB NEWS

Main category:
Middle-East

Saudi aid convoy arrives in Gaza via Rafah commercial crossing

Sun, 2023-01-08 23:01

GAZA CITY: A Saudi aid convoy carrying tons of meat on Saturday arrived in Gaza via the Rafah commercial crossing with Egypt.

The Kingdom has donated 12,000 sacrificial animals under the terms of an agreement signed with the Palestinian Ambassador to Egypt Diab Al-Louh during a recent ceremony held at the Saudi Embassy in Cairo.

As part of the deal, Egypt will also receive the same quantity of meat from Saudi Arabia.

Main category:

Middle-East