

Turkiye: 17 charged over bombing in Istanbul that killed 6

ID:

1668758334576572100

Fri, 2022-11-18 07:54

ISTANBUL: A Turkish court has ordered 17 suspects jailed pending trial in connection with a deadly street bombing in Istanbul, accusing them of attempts against the unity of the state, deliberate killings and attempts to kill, Turkiye's state-run news agency reported Friday.

The court released three other suspects from custody pending trial, Anadolu Agency reported. It also ordered the deportation from Turkiye of 29 people who were rounded up by police in connection with the attack.

Main category:

Middle-East

Iran's atomic chief says IAEA aware of

Tehran's nuclear activities

ID:

1668755115246390800

Fri, 2022-11-18 07:00

TEHRAN: The UN nuclear watchdog is aware of all of Iran's activities, the head of country's atomic energy organization said on Friday, a day after the atomic agency's Board of Governors demanded explanation for traces of uranium at three undeclared sites.

The resolution, which was drafted on Thursday by the United States, Britain, France and Germany, said it was "essential and urgent" that Iran explain the origin of the uranium particles and more generally give the International Atomic Energy Agency all the answers it requires.

Main category:

Middle-East

Cairo Airport customs officers thwart attempt to smuggle drugs into Egypt

Thu, 2022-11-17 22:45

CAIRO: An attempt to smuggle narcotic pills into Egypt has been thwarted by customs officers at Cairo International Airport.

The pills were hidden in a milk container in a passenger's luggage from Qatar.

The traveler has been arrested and referred to the prosecution authorities for legal action.

The arrest followed a tip-off from the General Department for Drug Control at the airport indicating that a passenger on a Qatar Airways flight intended to smuggle contraband into the country.

Main category:

Middle-East

Concerns grow over 'humanitarian tragedy' of desperate Palestinian migrants lost at sea

Thu, 2022-11-17 22:14

Dozens of desperate Palestinians who embark on illegal and dangerous boat journeys to Europe in search of a better life continue to lose their lives in tragedies at sea, according to officials, causing anguish for grieving loved ones at home.

They leave their homes in the hope of finding better job opportunities and improved living conditions. However, some drown and others are detained by coast guards when they arrive at their destinations. In the end, many who survive are sent back to where they came from.

Main category:
Middle-East

At least 21 killed, several others

hurt in Gaza Strip fire

Thu, 2022-11-17 21:48

GAZA: At least 21 people were killed and several others injured when a fire broke out in a building where residents attended a party in the Gaza Strip, health and civil emergency officials said on Thursday. It took fire fighters more than an hour to get control of the massive flames that burst through the top floor of a four-story residential building in the densely-populated Jabalia refugee camp in northern Gaza Strip.

Main category:

Middle-East