LONDON: The British, French, and American ambassadors to Yemen strongly condemned a Houthi attack targeting an oil tanker in Qena port, Shabwa on Thursday.

Yemen's foreign ministry said in a statement that the Houthis launched a drone attack on the southern Qena port in Shabwa on Wednesday.

"By launching yet another assault on international shipping and the flow of fundamental necessities, the Houthis have once again demonstrated their abject failure to prioritize the Yemeni people," Richard Oppenheim, Jean-Marie Sefa, and Steven Fagin said.

Minister highlights Jordan's tourism recovery at World Travel Market London

Wed, 2022-11-09 19:45

AMMAN: Delegates at World Travel Market in London on Wednesday heard about the Jordanian tourism industry's path to recovery following the effects of COVID-19 pandemic.

Tourism minister Nayef Fayez said that revenues have been improving since the start of this year, the Jordan News Agency reported.

During a media briefing by the Jordan Tourism Board at the event, the minister said low-cost flights have contributed to the recovery, as budget airlines such as Ryanair, Easy Jet, Wizz Air and Transavia have helped to increase the number of flights to the country.
