

Gaza Tales: Palestinian student hosts tours to raise awareness of history of Gaza City

Mon, 2022-11-07 22:47

GAZA CITY: Abdul Aziz Al-Balbisi, a 19-year-old Palestinian university student, has launched an initiative called "Gaza Tales" to encourage young people in the Gaza Strip to learn more about the history of their city.

Once a week, between 30 and 50 young men and women gather in old Gaza for a 2 kilometer walk, during which they learn about ancient landmarks and buildings, an experience the participants describe as most enjoyable.

Main category:
Middle-East

Israel's premier calls for unity after

Netanyahu election victory

Mon, 2022-11-07 00:20

JERUSALEM: Israel's prime minister on Sunday issued a plea for national unity, days after he was defeated in national elections by the former premier, Benjamin Netanyahu, with the backing of a far-right ultranationalist party.

In a memorial ceremony for the assassinated Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin, outgoing Prime Minister Yair Lapid warned of the deep divisions plaguing the country after the bitter campaign, Israel's fifth election since 2019.

Main category:

Middle-East

Dispute over Libyan territory and energy undermining Turkiye, Egypt reconciliation, say experts

Sun, 2022-11-06 23:01

ANKARA: Egypt has halted its rapprochement with Turkiye because of the latter's territorial and energy policy moves in Libya, and despite Ankara's recent crackdown on journalists in the country affiliated with the Muslim Brotherhood, say analysts.

The crisis erupted when Egypt's Foreign Minister Sameh Shoukry, in an interview with Al-Arabiya TV about the UN-brokered Skhirat agreement, urged all parties to deal with Fathi Bashagha's government.

Main category:
Middle-East

Yemeni female prisoner attempts suicide to escape Houthi mistreatment

Sun, 2022-11-06 22:31

AL-MUKALLA: A Yemeni woman has attempted suicide inside a Houthi-held jail in Sanaa after being exposed to "severe" physical and psychological maltreatment by her captors, a Yemeni human rights activist told Arab News on Sunday, an incident that has once again brought attention to the inhumane conditions in Houthi detention facilities.

Main category:

Middle-East

With electric buses and solar-power installations, Egypt's Sharm El-Sheikh goes 'green' for COP27

Sun, 2022-11-06 21:07

CAIRO: In the lead-up to the 27th UN Climate Change Conference, more commonly referred to as COP27, the Egyptian host city of Sharm El-Sheikh, situated on the country's glittering Red Sea coast, went green in every sense of the word.

From the fleet of electric vehicles that are transporting delegates to the ubiquitous solar panels designed to power all sectors of the local economy, Sharm El-Sheikh has become a showpiece for what a sustainable future might look like.

Main category:
Middle-East