

Saudi-Emirati cooperation in peaceful atomic-energy programs can be a model, says head of UAE's nuclear regulator

Sun, 2022-11-06 19:58

DUBAI: As the world watches the Russia-Ukraine conflict rage on, many fear that a nuclear escalation is imminent. Despite this threat, regulators and operators around the world are working to ensure the implementation of safe nuclear power, according to the head of the UAE's regulatory authority.

Main category:

Middle-East

Egypt releases book on Islam and the environment ahead of COP27

Sat, 2022-11-05 23:19

CAIRO: As Egypt gears up to host the UN Climate Change Conference, the Ministry of Awqaf on Saturday issued a book on the relationship between the environment and Islam.

Titled "Protecting the Environment Between Legislative and Human Responsibility," the publication sheds light on Islam's interest in the natural world and the need to preserve it as a public asset.

Main category:

Middle-East

Yemeni push forces Al-Qaeda out of Abyan valley hideout

Sat, 2022-11-05 21:03

AL-MUKALLA: Yemeni military forces have advanced into a large valley in Yemen's southern province of Abyan to dislodge Al-Qaeda militants who have long used the area for recruiting, storing arms and staging deadly attacks against government-controlled areas, a military spokesperson told Arab News on Saturday.

Main category:
Middle-East

International collaboration vital to protect Red Sea, Jordanian royal says

Sat, 2022-11-05 19:48

AQABA, Jordan: Regional and international cooperation is key to protecting the Red Sea ecosystem and advancing scientific research, a senior member of the Jordanian royal family said on Saturday.

Speaking at the “First International Conference on the Red Sea Ecosphere: Conservation and Management of the Red Sea Marine Environment,” Prince El-Hassan bin Talal, stressed the importance of developing the Great Rift Valley and addressing disparities in order to empower its people, Jordan News Agency reported.

Main category:
Middle-East

Iran Revolutionary Guard launches satellite-carrying rocket

ID:
1667654789030414800
Sat, 2022-11-05 16:30

DUBAI: Iran's powerful paramilitary Revolutionary Guard on Saturday launched a new satellite-carrying rocket, state TV reported, seeking to demonstrate the force's space prowess even as anti-government protests rage across the country.

Main category:
Middle-East