

Palestinian fugitive killed after firing shots at West Bank settlement

ID:

1666210344771159700

Wed, 2022-10-19 23:16

MAALE ADUMIM, Palestinian Territories: A Palestinian on the run after perpetrating a deadly attack against Israeli forces was killed Wednesday in the occupied West Bank after he shot at Israelis on the edge of a settlement, officials said.

The alleged attacker, identified by Israeli Prime Minister Yair Lapid as Udai Tamimi, had been sought by Israeli security forces since the fatal shooting of an 18-year-old Israeli soldier earlier this month at a checkpoint at the entrance to the Shuafat refugee camp in east Jerusalem.

Main category:

Middle-East

Sudan says rebels shell town in south,

wounding two

Thu, 2022-10-20 00:11

KHARTOUM: Sudan's army said on Wednesday a rebel group that has refused to sign a key peace deal had shelled a town in the southern state of West Kordofan, wounding two officers.

The reported artillery strikes in Lagawa, some 580 km southwest of the capital Khartoum, come after ethnic clashes last week in a land dispute near the town left several people dead.

"Forces belonging to the Sudan People's Liberation Movement-North launched indiscriminate shellings," the armed forces said in a statement.

Main category:
Middle-East

Yemen's government forms negotiating team for peace talks with Houthis

Wed, 2022-10-19 20:52

AL-MUKALLA: Yemen's Presidential Leadership Council has formed an 11-member committee to engage in talks with the Iran-backed Houthis to end the war, but there are no signs that the militia will accept any attempt to begin peace negotiations, including through the UN.

A government official told Arab News that the committee has veteran negotiators who had previously met with the Houthis in Kuwait, Geneva and other cities, including representatives of women groups and the pro-independence Southern Transitional Council.

Main category:

Middle-East

Cholera outbreak spreads in Lebanon

Wed, 2022-10-19 20:23

BEIRUT: Cholera is spreading fast across Lebanon, with 80 confirmed cases recorded over two days this week.

Health Minister Firass Abiad said on Wednesday that the majority were among Syrian refugees. However, he added that “there has been an increase in cases among the Lebanese.”

The ministry said the new cases had raised the total to 169, including two in Kesserwan, Mount Lebanon. Two more deaths have also been recorded, raising the toll to five.

Main category:

Middle-East

Iranian regime's relentless attacks on protesters must end, says UN human rights chief

Wed, 2022-10-19 00:17

NEW YORK CITY: Volker Turk, the UN's high commissioner for human rights, on Tuesday said he is deeply concerned about the unrelenting violent crackdown by security forces on protesters in Iran, including reports of arbitrary arrests and the killing and detention of children.

More than a month after nationwide protests broke out over the death in police custody of 23-year-old Mahsa Amini, as many as 23 children have been killed and many more injured in a number of provinces by live bullets or metal pellets fired at close range, or by fatal beatings, according to Turk's office.

Main category:
Middle-East