US imposes new sanctions on Iran oil exports

Thu, 2022-09-29 20:05

WASHINGTON: The US on Thursday imposed sanctions on companies it suspects of involvement in Iran's petrochemical and petroleum trade, including some based in China, as Washington warned of further actions to enforce its economic curbs on Tehran.

US Secretary of State Antony Blinken said in a statement Washington placed sanctions on two China-based companies, Zhonggu Storage and Transportation Co. Ltd, and WS Shipping Co. Ltd, part of attempts to thwart sanctions evasion on the sale of Iranian petroleum and petrochemical products.

Lebanese MPs bicker as deadline nears to elect new president

Wed, 2022-09-28 21:03

BEIRUT: Lebanon's parliament speaker has called a Thursday session to elect a new president, despite a political deadlock caused by a splintered chamber failing to agree on a candidate.

Nabih Berri's announcement comes weeks before Michel Aoun is due to leave office, and as rival parliamentary blocs refuse to nominate or even discuss who should replace him.

Lebanon's Parliament of 128 MPs contains two main blocs after elections earlier this year: The Hezbollah-aligned March 8 Alliance with 60 MPs, and their opponents, the March 14 Alliance with 38.

PKK blamed for deadly police guesthouse attack in Turkey

Wed, 2022-09-28 19:23

ANKARA: Turkey has blamed the Kurdistan Workers' Party (PKK) for a deadly attack on a police guesthouse in the country's southern coastal Mersin province.

One policeman was killed and another injured in the attack reportedly carried out by two women who opened fire with long-barreled weapons and detonated bombs late on Monday.

Another bomb, found in a bag near the guesthouse, was defused.

One of the assailants has been identified as Dilsah Ercan, codenamed Zozan Tolan, who joined the PKK in 2013 in Mersin, the Turkish Interior Ministry said.
