

Jordan's Royal Marine Conservation Society launches 'Clean up the World 2022' campaign

Thu, 2022-09-22 23:32

AQABA: The Royal Marine Conservation Society of Jordan launched the "Clean up the World 2022" campaign in Aqaba on Wednesday, Petra News Agency reported.

The campaign is a social action program aimed at combating the global solid waste problem. Running in 130 countries it offers opportunities for people to contribute toward the conservation of the environment.

Its debut in Jordan attracted more than 700 volunteers from local businesses and institutions.

Main category:

Middle-East

Bulgarian coast guard rescues 38 migrants from Black Sea

ID:

1663878720082229800

Thu, 2022-09-22 23:39

SOFIA: The Bulgarian coast guard rescued 38 migrants trying to reach Romania from the Black Sea Thursday, the interior ministry announced, the first such incident in the region since 2014.

The group, which included eight women and eight children, were found in Bulgarian territorial waters where they had got into difficulty in stormy weather, said Anton Mirkov, the head of the region's border police.

The migrants, who included people from Afghanistan and Syria, had started out from Turkey.

Main category:

Middle-East

UAE University collaborates with 52

Saudi universities, research centers

Thu, 2022-09-22 23:17

AL AIN: The United Arab Emirates University has collaborated with 52 universities, government research institutions and other bodies in Saudi Arabia, according to a report by the Emirates News Agency.

International collaboration is one of the university's strategic priorities as it aims to share best educational and research practices in a way that supports its vision of becoming a research-intensive institution.

Main category:

Middle-East

‘Drink it anyway’: Syria water woes peak in cholera outbreak

Thu, 2022-09-22 22:46

AL-KASRAH, Syria: In a Syrian hospital crowded with women and wailing children, Ahmad Al-Mohammed writhed in pain beside his wife after they contracted cholera, which is resurging for the first time in years.

During his six days in treatment, Mohammed has watched patients stream into the Al-Kasrah Hospital in the eastern province of Deir Ezzor, where the highly polluted Euphrates River is a major source of contaminated water used for both drinking and irrigation.

Main category:

Middle-East

Leaders of UN and Arab League discuss Palestinian cause in New York

Wed, 2022-09-21 23:22

CAIRO: The Palestinian cause was among the topics discussed when Ahmed Aboul Gheit, secretary-general of the League of Arab States, and Antonio Guterres, secretary-general of the UN, met on Wednesday on the sidelines of the 77th session of the UN General Assembly.

Their representatives said the two officials talked about a number of matters related to international crises, along with the latest developments in the Middle East.

Main category:
Middle-East