

Military deploys to provide flood relief during Storm Dennis

British Army personnel have deployed to assist civil authorities with the provision of flood relief to local communities in West Yorkshire