

Military personnel receive over £4million in extra cash to protect them from Scottish tax hikes

Military personnel liable for Scottish income tax will this month receive extra money from the MOD to protect them from increased tax rates in Scotland.