

Millions of people to benefit from £20 million to keep local museums open and thriving

£20 million investment in civic museums to protect opening hours and jobs, as part of the government's ongoing commitment to ensure museums can continue to tell our national story at a local level