

Millions of vaccines to be made in Oxfordshire, and government unveils £50 million fund, in double boost for life sciences

New Modern Innovation and Technology Centre opened as government further boosts life sciences sector with £50 million fund.