

Millions to receive essential benefit payments ahead of August bank holiday

Millions of people will receive their essential financial support before the August bank holiday weekend, as the Government has confirmed that benefit payments will be brought forward to Friday 22 August.