

Minister for the Middle East speech at the Driving International Trade Conference

In a keynote speech at the British Chambers of Commerce's annual conference, Minister Falconer highlighted how the Foreign Office is supporting businesses to navigate an increasingly uncertain world.