

Minister gives stamp of approval to protecting Post Office network

Government response to the Post Office Green Paper published today by Ministers, confirming that the minimum branch requirement will be maintained.