

Minister visits MHRA to see cutting-edge science protecting patients and supporting the NHS

The MHRA welcomed Health Minister Smyth to its science campus as part of British Science Week to demonstrate how innovations become safe, effective treatments for NHS patients.