

Missing man in Kwai Chung located

A man who went missing in Kwai Chung has been located.

Liu Chung-man, aged 65, went missing after he left a rehabilitation centre on Tai Loong Street on October 26 morning. Staff of the rehabilitation centre made a report to Police on October 27.

The man was located at Kwai Chung Hospital this morning (November 1). No suspicious circumstances were detected.