

MOD signs £65 million contract for Protector aircraft

A £65 million contract to build the UK's first three Protector aircraft, the first UK operated system capable of strike missions anywhere in the world, has been signed.