

Modernised homes for military families in Woolwich returning from Cyprus deployment

More than 120 military families in Woolwich will live in newly refurbished properties, as part of an overhaul that is already benefitting families returning from deployment to Cyprus.