

MSK patients to get faster care and help returning to work

Thousands of patients with painful joint and muscle conditions will receive employment support and treatment to tackle health-related economic inactivity.