

Multi million-pound government investment for pioneering plutonium disposal technology

The NDA group has been allocated £154 million in government funding to develop specialised capabilities to enable plutonium disposal.